

The RMLSA continues a tough summer stretch as it heads northeast for it's 2nd double header weekend starting Friday night July 13th at the Extremely Fast Phillips County Raceway in Holyoke, CO. Followed up by Saturday night at the High Banks of Butch Speichers I-76 Speedway in Ft. Morgan, CO. Brent Rees and Troy Simpson fresh off last weekends victories look to hold off the other RMLSA competitors. The points battle is always tight as Rees leads Jeff Gieg by 58, Troy Simpson by 84, Paul Babich by 194 and Auston Pribbenow by 195. With 155 points available at each event things can change quickly. Come watch the excitement as Sammy Gallo, Tim Snelling, Glenn Waterland, Scott Wilson and Steve Becker battle it out to complete the top 10 in points as we are at the mid season in the schedule.

Hoosier

Pit Gates at Phillips County open at 4:30 racing begins at 7:30 on Friday.

Pit Gates at I-76 open at 3:30, racing begins at 6:00pm Saturday.

